In accordance with OMB Circular A-76 (Revised May 29, 2003), the National Institutes of Health (NIH) is publicly announcing the results of a Streamlined Competition for Human Resources Administrative Support. The Competitive Sourcing Official (CSO) was Mr. Joe Ellis, Assistant Secretary for Administration and Management, Department of Health and Human Services. The Contracting Officer is Mr. Larry Manning. NIH has completed a Streamlined Competition for these services in accordance with OMB Circular A-76. On January 22, 2009, the Streamlined Competition Form (SLCF) was certified by the agency and the Contracting Officer, indicating the study completion. As a result of this study, performance of these functions will remain in-house. Based on this decision, the Contracting Officer will execute a Letter of Obligation (LOO) with the senior manager responsible for performance of the function. In accordance with the revised OMB Circular A-76, effective May 29, 2003, no party may contest any aspect of this Streamlined Competition.
